Malaysia Going All Out Against Indonesia

By TONY ESCODA

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP)—Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman put his policies and prestige to the test today as voters weighed his appeals for all-out resistance to Indonesian hostility.

Rahman has made resistance the cornerstone of his campaign in the state and parliamentary election and told his people they must be ready to fight in the face of President Sukarno's repeated threats to "crush Malaysia."

The 61-year-old architect of Malaysia, molded last September of Malay, Singapore and the Borneo states of Sabah and Sarawak, predicted a ringing endorsement as throngs jammed the polls in an apparent record turnout.

About 80 per cent of the 2.8 million voters were expected to make a choice between Rahman's aim to stand up against Indonesia and the softer attitude of accommodation preached by his opponents.

Rahman's Alliance party, a coalition of Malay, Chinese and Indian parties, accused the two major opposition parties of complicity with Sukarno, who has denounced Malaysia as a British neo-colonialist plot and launched guerrilla operations in Sabah and Sarawak.

Police and troops were placed on special alert for possible terrorism, especially in Southern Malaysia and Singapore where the government charges scores of Indonesian saboteurs and agents are operating.

The voting was for 104 parliamentary seats and 282 state government seats in the 11 Malay states, kingdom of the Malaysian federation, Sarawak, Sabah and Singapore appoint their federal representatives and hold separate state elections.

Rahman's party was favored to win. Counting seats held in Sabah and Sarawak, it needed only 44 more to win a majority in the 159-seat Federal Parliament.

Rahman's chief opposition parties are the leftist Socialist Front and the right-wing, religiously fanatic Pan-Malayan Islamic party. Both have been advocating a softer line toward Indonesia.

World's Fair Makes Good Recovery

By ROBERT HOLTON

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York World's Fair making a spectacular recovery from opening-day bad weather and civil rights clamor, has earned the endorsement of the most important of all critics, the customer.

The exposition was lauded by some two dozen persons polled at random Thursday on the fairgrounds.

Attendance climbed from Wednesday's opening-day 82,696 to 163,252 Thursday. The relatively low attendance Wednesday was attributed to civil rights demonstrations, which had been announced in advance and to the chill rain.

More than 300 persons were arrested for demonstrating in or around the 646-acre fair site in Flushing Meadow Park.

Many of the patrons polled Thursday spoke of the educational value of the dozens of government and industrial pavilions.

"There are many worthwhile exhibitions," said Dante Germanotta of Walpole, Mass. "It's great to see the technology of our society."

Others remarked about how far a dollar went, and still others praised the resting and eating accommodations, a great point of dissatisfaction at the 1939-40 New York World's Fair.

A few complained of long waits to get into some of the larger pavilions, and others suggested restaurant prices could be a bit lower.

'The Brides of March', 2nd Community Theater Effort, Should Prove Interesting

By MARY ANITA LASETER
Star Feature Writer

What happens when a young Englishman, who is married to an American, inherits five dancing girls from a North African sheik he had once helped? And where do you put such a gift? The letter telling him of his unusual inheritance arrives on March 15, otherwise known as the Ides of March, and lays the foundation for the next Hope Community Theater production which is appropriately entitled "The Brides of March."

Tony, the main character, is played by David Pearson, and his wife, Sally, is portrayed by Mary Ann Avery in the second production of the Hope Community Theater which will be presented at the Hope City Hall next Friday and Saturday, May 1 and 2, at 8 p. m. each night. Ken Daniels has the role of Ken, Tony's brother, and their parents are portrayed by Katherine Lauterback and Paul O'Neal.

Luther Holloman is a character named Haroon, and Tompee Keesey is a cockney housekeeper. There will certainly be an accent on their performances. Besides Sally, only one other member of the cast is supposed to be an American. That is an airplane pilot, Jack, enacted by Phil McLarty. George Peck, Jr. will be a policeman and Al Weisenberger, a moving van operator.

What about the dancing girls left in the sheik's will? Are they for real? And how! Cynthia Owen, Susan Forster, Donna Ayers, Margie Herndon, and Vicki Connell are the sheik-sized problem which confronts Sally when she arrives home, how does she cope with such a situation, and what is the reaction of Tony, who is certainly not the ladies-man type?

For the answers to these and other questions which you either have now or will manage to develop by opening night, come to see "The Brides of March," a 3-act comedy, which will be directed by Martin Pool Jr. with Barbara Daniels as technical director.

The play will be staged on the newly remodeled City Hall Auditorium facility, which has been enlarged to twice the original size of the stage. Two dressing rooms have also been added. Both improvements were paid for by the city. Though the city authorized $1089 to be spent for this work, the Community Theater only spent $1036 of it and used $200 of their own money to purchase equipment for an entire new lighting for the stage.

Tickets to "The Brides of March" are $1.50 each, and the money will be used to buy curtains for the stage after expenses of the play are met.

The Community Theater is just that — a Community Undertaking. You, the citizens of Hope, will benefit from the work of these enterprising individuals who make the Community Theater possible, for the stage and its improvements can be used by many local projects, such as the recent presentation of the Kiwanis Minaret. Besides that, the theater has long been recognized as an important part in the word of art and, therefore, a cultural contribution to the life of any community.

Negro Riot Quelled in Dallas Jail

By CLAYTON HICKERSON

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Police with dogs and fire hoses Thursday night quelled a riot in the Dallas County Jail that involved about 150 Negro prisoners and lasted three and one-half hours.

One jailer, Ray Masters, 50, was wounded superficially. Sheriff Bill Decker said, with a razor blade broken into two pieces and wielded by two inmates.

The sheriff said no prisoners were hurt in the disturbance.

Decker said he had gone to the jail about 7:30 p. m. to talk to a group of prisoners who had been shouting, "We want justice," and rattling tin cups on their cell bars. He said they protested about food, crowded conditions and infrequent use of the telephone.

After talking to the prisoners, Decker said he thought everything had quieted until a short time later when the riot erupted.

Decker said Masters went into the safety vestibule where a fight had started and two men crowded into the safety vestibule with the jailer. As he sought to get them back into the corridor, they slashed him with the broken razor blade.

Prisoners in three corridors of the seventh floor then began shouting, cursing and tearing up their mattresses. Decker said at least three mattresses were torn to bits, set afire and thrown to the street below, a short distance from the point where President John F. Kennedy was assassinated last Nov. 22.

Jack Ruby, convicted slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald, Kennedy's accused assassin, is held in the jail awaiting appeal of his death sentence assessed by a jury March 14.

It was from this same jail building that seven prisoners made a sensational escape during the Ruby murder trial. Two men still are at large.

$21 Million Bid for River Lock

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Al Johnson Construction Co. of Minneapolis and Peter Kiewit Sons Co. of Omaha submitted a combined, apparent low bid of $21,536,296 Thursday on construction of the first Arkansas River navigation lock and dam.

An Army Engineers spokesman said the bids will be reviewed and contracts awarded in two weeks.

The dam will form a navigation pool 18 miles long. It will be 25 miles downstream from Pine Bluff near the confluence of the White and Arkansas rivers.

The structure will have a concrete spillway section 1,260 feet long, with 18 steel gates 60 feet wide, and a 110-foot wide lock chamber on the east end of the spillway.

Engineers, who estimated cost of the project at $24,671,308, said the lock and dam would not be completed for about three years, nine months.

Cites Narrow Wall on China Relations

ROANOKE, Va. (AP)—Undersecretary of State George W. Ball says U.S. policy toward Communist Cuba must fall within a narrow limit — between war, which Washington rejects, and negotiation, which is out of the question.

This means, Ball said Thursday night, the U.S. government must pursue its present line of action: Strengthen Latin-American nations to resist Red subversion and reduce Havana's power to advance communism through means short of war.

Ball chose the Omicron Delta Kappa Society convention for what amounted to endorsement of present Cuban policy and a defense of the embargo the United States has mounted against the island.

He said his objective was to clear up "misapprehensions" and "confusion" that have been apparent in public debate over the United States' Cuban policy.

Last month, Chairman J. W. Fulbright of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee charged in a Senate speech that the American boycott of Cuba has failed. "It is simply not within our power to compel our allies to cut off their trade," the Arkansas Democrat said, "unless we are prepared to take drastic sanctions."

Ball contended, however, that "we have obtained considerable, although not complete, cooperation" from the NATO allies in clamping down on shipping to Cuba and the sale of industrial goods, transport equipment and critical materials.

Along this line, he cautioned against the sale of locomotives to Cuba, saying they would bolster the island's economy even more than did the recent sale of 450 British buses.

Cuba's Western transportation equipment is falling apart rapidly, he said, and it is important that the West not provide spare parts and replacements.

Ball did not specify what prospective deal he had in mind, although there have been reports that France is considering selling locomotives to the Castro government.

Ball flatly ruled out negotiation as well as invasion and maintained the United States "must rely, as our major instrument, on a systematic program of economic denial."

Governor Ends a Float Trip

COTTER, ARK. (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus ended an 18-mile White River float trip here Thursday and dedicated a segment of a scenic road called Rainbow Drive.

It parallels the river from here to Bull Shoals Dam 18 miles upstream. At a barbecue in the city park, Faubus told about 2,000 persons that "I would like to see a blacktop road in every little settlement and in every school district."

He said Rainbow Drive could be the start of a "great and wonderful program of beautifying highways and opening scenic drives."

Rural road improvement is what Faubus said he would emphasize in his bid for a sixth straight term this summer. He praised the beauty of the area and said he hoped the Highway Department would be more selective in clearing trees from highway rights-of-way.

Southerners Could Upset Rights Vote

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate leaders said today they expect a vote by Wednesday on their amendment to the civil rights bill—an amendment they hope will drive the opening wedge into the Senate stalemate.

Both leaders, Democrat Mike Mansfield and Republican Everett M. Dirksen, told newsmen the test on the first amendment to the measure should come by Tuesday or Wednesday.

Southerners could upset the timetable. However, the Mansfield-Dirksen proposal on jury trials in discrimination cases is a gesture toward easing their opposition which has forced the debate into its 40th day.

Originally, President Johnson and other supporters of the broad antidiscrimination measure had called for its passage in the same form as drafted in the House.

But after consultation with administration strategists the Senate leaders introduced their amendment as a substitute for a Southern proposal offered by Sen. Herman E. Talmadge, D-Ga.

It would permit a jury trial on any contempt action arising under the rights bill if the penalty involved more than 30 days in prison or a fine or more than $300.

If an individual or official fails to comply with a court order in a racial case, he could be found to be in contempt of the court. Most such contempt cases in the past have been decided by federal judges without a jury.

The new amendment is similar to a compromise attached to the 1957 civil rights bill, which ordered jury trials if the penalty involved more than 45 days or a $300 fine. That would be brought into line with the current amendment.

One top supporter of the bill, who asked not to be identified, said that if Southerners insist on continuing their speeches against the measure they may encourage some reluctant senators to join the drive to limit debate and force voting.

Normally the Senate does not meet Saturday, but leaders called for a fourth consecutive Saturday session with Sens. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., and Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Calif., scheduled to speak.

Mrs. J. L. Shields, 49, Dies Friday

Mrs. Thelma Thrash Shields, 49, resident of Hope for 22 years, died Friday in a local hospital. She was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Survivors are her husband, Joe L. Shields; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Bette Hopper of Long Beach, Calif., Mrs. Helen Kirtley of Torrance, Calif., four brothers, Willis, Edgar and Hubert Thrash, all of Hope and Pennix Thrash of Hot Springs; three sisters, Mrs. Occo Erwin of Natchitoches, La., Mrs. Lila Mae Moran of Pampa, Texas and Mrs. Lottie McWha of Hot Springs.

Services will be at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at First Baptist Church by Dr. George Balentine. Burial by Oakcrest Funeral Home will be in Memory Gardens.

They found it—empty—beside a seat occupied by a woman who identified herself as Lucille Lightfoot, 35, of Chicago.

Sgt. Russell Fisher couldn't understand her mumbled replies to questions and asked her to get rid of her chewing gum. The woman consisted of five $100 bills, claimed by Carl Spencer Aycock of La Center, Ky., and Chicago.

The woman was booked for investigation of larceny, and Sgt. Fisher said she admitted the theft.

G-P Stock Split

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Georgia-Pacific Co. stockholders have approved a 5-for-4 common stock split in place of a 1 per cent stock dividend for the second quarter. The regular quarterly dividend of 25 cents per share has been declared.

Stilwell Heads Viet Nam Command

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department said Thursday night that Maj. Gen. Richard G. Stilwell has been named chief of staff of the U.S. Military Assistance Command in South Viet Nam.

Stilwell succeeds Marine Maj. Gen. Richard G. Woode, who will return to Washington next month for duty at Marine Corps headquarters.

Stilwell, 47, has been assistant chief of staff for operations in the Military Assistance Command in South Viet Nam since April 1963. He is not related to the late Gen. Joseph (Vinegar Joe) Stilwell, World War II commander in Burma. Gen. Joseph Stilwell's son, Brig. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell, also is in Viet Nam as head of the U.S. Army support command.

Johnson Is on Tour of Poverty Area

By FRANK CORMIER

CHICAGO (AP)—President Johnson embarks today on a four-state "poverty tour" after raising about one-half million dollars from prosperous Illinois Democrats at a party dinner.

A fleet of jet-powered helicopters stood by at Meigs Field, on the Lake Michigan shore, to whisk Johnson and his party to South Bend, Ind., to inspect a federally financed retraining center for the unemployed.

Accompanied by Mrs. Johnson, the President also was stopping at Pittsburgh, Pa.; Inez and Paintsville, Ky.; and Huntington, W. Va.

The purpose was to plug the administration's antipoverty program and display presidential concern for hard-core pockets of unemployment and economic distress.

To climax his fast-paced schedule, Johnson invited governors of nine states to confer with him at Huntington on the particular problems of the Appalachian region. Those invited included segregationist Democrat George C. Wallace of Alabama and Republican William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania—a possible Johnson opponent in the November election.

Thursday night, in Chicago, Johnson was saluted at a $100-a-plate dinner by an estimated 6,000 of the Democratic faithful.

The President, who has said he'll tone down partisan talk at pre-convention political gatherings, forgot himself long enough to add some resounding flourishes to his prepared remarks at the dinner.

Come November, Johnson predicted, the voters will bestow "decisive victory at all levels for the party of the people."

Griming, Johnson said he had read in a Chicago newspaper that his first presidential foray into the Midwest was taking him into "Goldwater country."

"This is Democratic country," said the President. "It is Democratic tonight and it is going to be Democratic country next November."

In his prepared text, which he read, Johnson said Democrats should think "not only of the next election but of the next generation."

He said that if the party helps build "a great society of the highest order we do not have to worry about success at the polls."

Wherever Johnson went in Chicago, crowds with Democratic-financed placards waited in the chill. Time and again, the President stepped into crowds for handshaking.

About the only non-cheers in view were a small group of behind police barricades outside McCormick Place, site of the Democratic party dinner. Driving past, Johnson got only a glimpse of the banner-carrying marchers.

Much noisier was the carefully timed fireworks display that erupted along the lakefront as Johnson left the hall. With rockets bursting aloft, the presidential limousine slowed to a crawl so Johnson could see earthbound displays—a fiery American flag, a Texas hat and a portrait of the President.

Johnson's tour of distressed areas was announced only Thursday, and the final schedule was not nailed down until early today. It embraced a hectic round of helicopter and jet flights, speeches and conferences.

Invited to meet with the President at Huntington late in the day were the governors of West Virginia, Maryland, Alabama, North Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Insecticides Heavy in Milk at Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—District and federal officials have cracked down after discovering that quantities of milk shipped into the capital contained up to eight times as much insecticide as permissible.

Health officials said no health hazard was involved. But Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., who is conducting Senate hearings on pesticide problems, declared "the warning of the future is clear, and preventive action must be taken."

Since Feb. 26, 50 city-bound milk tank trucks have been stopped and checked. Three were found to have levels of pesticides of "regulatory significance," Dr. Frederick C. Heath, deputy director of the Health Department, told a press conference Friday.

The insecticide was identified as heptachlor epoxide, used by dairy farmers to prevent weevil infestations of alfalfa crops fed to cows.

As a result of the discovery, the District Health Department suspended the permits of 14 farms, and the Department of Agriculture canceled its registration of heptachlor for use on alfalfa.

Dr. Murray Grant, district health officer, said Food and Drug Administration inspectors, applying new testing techniques, have been helping to uncover trouble spots in the Washington-Baltimore milkshed.

In the cases of the 14 farms, all uncovered in the last two weeks, samplings showed the milk contained more than the tolerance allowance, Grant said.

In most instances, he added, the tests showed insecticide levels around one part per million, four times the tolerance allowed. In some cases, he said, it ran eight times the amount.

Grant said it is considered unlikely that such contamination levels would harm consumers, at least on a short-term basis. Tolerances are set well below the amounts that actually harm test animals.

Court Ruling on Prayer Called Deadly

By JOHN BECKLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court ban on official school prayers was seen today by a House member as part of "a deadly attempt to make our America officially a godless nation."

Rep. Robert L. F. Sikes, D-Fla., expressed that view in testimony prepared for the House Judiciary Committee and urged enactment of a constitutional amendment to reverse the court's decision.

Sikes said religion should not be confined only to the church and the home.

"I believe that religion exists everywhere, and that it should be recognized everywhere," he said. "And I consider it particularly important in these days, when teaching in the home is so often neglected, that religious education be implemented in public schools and public places."

Sikes' testimony continued the barrage by House members in support of various proposed amendments to permit prayers and Bible reading in the schools.

Nearly two dozen have testified since the hearings began Wednesday and only one, Rep. John W. Davis, D-Ga., expressed approval of the Supreme Court's prayer and Bible reading decisions.

Committee members who have raised numerous questions about the constitutional difficulties involved in the problem were chided Thursday by Rep. Craig Hosmer, R-Calif., for "tilting at windmills."

Hosmer said all Congress had to do was remove any prohibition that may exist to religious exercises in public schools and leave it to local authorities to deal with any problems that may arise.

"But it's not as simple as that," said Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., "there are many different kinds of prayers and different versions of the Bible. A school board may prescribe a prayer or a Bible that are objectionable to some parents."

"But it's not as simple as that," said Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., "there are many different kinds of prayers and different versions of the Bible. A school board may prescribe a prayer or a Bible that are objectionable to some parents."

Says Faubus

Has Created

a Berlin Wall

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) —

Gov. Orval E. Faubus has created an imaginary Berlin Wall between the state government and the people, Republican gubernatorial candidate Winthrop Rockefeller charged here Thursday night.

Rockefeller told an enthusiastic dinner crowd of 250 that the Faubus administration has repressed freedom of thought and expression.

The crowd, jammed into a restaurant, paid $5-a-plate to ward Rockefeller's campaign fund, and greeted him with a standing ovation.

"The expression of political beliefs does not disqualify you as a competent person," Rockefeller said.

He said some efficient state employees who spoke their political convictions "found their efficiency has disappeared."

The Berlin Wall idea came from a dying friend who sent a campaign contribution to him, Rockefeller said, and asked "how much freedom will be left in Arkansas if Faubus wins a sixth straight term."

"The two-party system is to protect us against such a wall, whether it is real of imaginary, and to prevent our having a wall to separate us from freedom," Rockefeller said.

The Republicans are prepared to become the "ins" instead of the "outs" after the November general election, he said, and he promised Faubus would not face a dull campaign.

"Faubus should never be underestimated," he said. "He's an astute opponent. I could make the same speech by heart that he has been making for years."

New Poultry Markets

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Foreign Agricultural Service said Thursday that new markets for U.S. exports of poultry may be developing in the Far East Africa and Latin America. It said Common Market countries West Germany and the Netherlands have cut back shipments to those areas because of export barriers designed to expand production in Western Europe.

Corn was truly the staff of life to early Arkansas.

Tooth Is Transplanted Successfully

By STAN BENJAMIN

PHILADELPHIA, (AP) — "Well, I had a youngster who was losing teeth, and another youngster who had too many teeth. I had to remove one for orthodontic reasons. It seemed a shame to just throw it out."

So, Dr. Ralph R. Mezrow, 43, a Philadelphia dentist, decided to plant the left-over tooth from one patient in the mouth of the other patient who needed it. The transplant worked.

That was five years ago. Since then Mezrow has planted another five teeth in the mouth of that first patient.

He and his associates at Philadelphia's Albert Einstein Medical Center have planted some 95 teeth in a total of about 70 patients. Only a few of the transplants have failed.

"The worst that can happen is that the tooth just comes loose. The funny thing is that if that happens, the people who had the transplant always want to try again," Mezrow says.

Three types of persons usually write, asking for transplants: Persons who were, through some quirk of nature, born without teeth and never had any, persons who lost teeth in auto accidents; and persons who can't tolerate dentures.

The technique still is considered experimental and there are many unanswered questions.

Mezrow carried on his transplant experiments for the first few years alone.

Last June, the National Institutes of Health supplied a grant of $61,280 to continue the studies. About half the transplants have been done in the past nine months.

Science has found that the human body has a natural defense, called the immune reaction, with which the body rejects foreign substances. This reaction rejects healthy tissue used in a graft or transplant.

Certain specific materials low in blood vessels, such as bone and the cornea of the eye, seem to arouse little reaction and have been successfully transplanted for years.

Along with his transplants Mezrow has performed a few "autografts," transplanting a tooth to a new location in the same mouth. This eliminates any immune reaction. In both cases the transplants have been generally successful.

For the patient, a transplant presents few problems. It is performed under local anesthetic; it usually takes about 45 minutes; and the patient usually can go about his normal activities the next day.

Donor teeth are stored in a cool saline solution, for up to a month, until needed. After anesthetic, the dentist opens the gum. Then he fits the tooth into the empty socket, shaping the socket with a drill until the tooth fits snugly.

The tooth is inserted and the gum is sewn together. Sometimes a plastic splint is added, which braces the new tooth for several weeks.

Had Job 15 Years and Files Again

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Lloyd Henry, 45, of Searcy, filed Thursday for an eight straight term as First Judicial District Prosecutor. He has had the job for 15 years.

A. E. Raff of Helena also has filed for the post, giving Henry his first opposition since his April 25, May 2, 1964

Here's the Answer

...deep rooted in God's Word --- The Book.
When Sir Walter Scott lay dying — he called for The Book. The servant who best knew his library hesitated and asked,
"Which Book?" Being the writer and reader of many books, Sir Walter said,
"There is only one book for a dying man."
Is it not equally true for a living man?
What book compares in value to aid us in better living? Do you try to find out what is your highest duty? Do you want guidance? Do you cherish peace of mind? Do you seek inspiration?
Do you really want to know what life is for? This man holds The Source ---
The Answer --- The Divine Way.
Day by day let us enrich our minds,
let us seek from the Bible, wisdom, and try to understand God's purpose for us in His World.
See you in church or Synagogue
this week.

You In The Church
The Church is You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs
the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us
support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

THE CHURCHES OF THIS COMMUNITY ARE THE ONLY INSTITUTIONS WHICH HAVE AS THEIR MAIN FUNCTION, THE TRANSFORMING OF HUMAN LIVES. THEY ARE THE SIGN BOARDS POINTING THE WAY TO GOD.

Sponsors of these messages urge faithful church support. Through these pages the appeal is for all men to stand up and be counted . . . to combat Communism on all fronts . . . to be faithful to God.

OUR PASTORS ARE GOD'S SERVANTS WHO CALL THE SIGNALS AGAINST THE ORGANIZED FORCES OF EVIL. THEY INVITE YOU TO ENLIST ON THE SIDE FOR GOD . . .
